

Career In Progress, is a Career Management & Recruiting Company that offers boutique services for businesses across Greece.

On behalf of our Partner The Bank of Cyprus Oncology Centre, we are looking for an experienced and dynamic:

Pathologist

Our client:

The Bank of Cyprus Oncology Centre, based in Nicosia, was established in 1998 following an agreement between the Republic of Cyprus and the Bank of Cyprus. Since its opening day, the Centre has established itself as the main provider of oncology services, having served 45,000 patients.

The Centre has been accredited by CHKS (Caspe Healthcare Knowledge Systems), the UK based leading provider of healthcare intelligence and quality improvement services for hospitals worldwide. The Centre has been accredited for the quality of its service since 2007. It is the first medical centre in Greece and Cyprus to have obtained this accreditation.

The primary objective of the Centre is the diagnosis and treatment of all types of cancer, in order to achieve the best possible results for the benefit of patients.

The Centre comprises of three clinics: The Radiation Oncology and Nuclear Medicine Clinic.

The role of the Pathologist includes the assessment and monitoring of patients who are to be admitted and/or hospitalised in the department to which he/she is assigned.

The main responsibilities of this role include:

- Communication with multi-disciplinary teams, working in harmony with all members
- Participation in relevant scientific meetings
- Check laboratory results
- Review other tests
- Prescription home medication
- Update patient records
- Contribution to the formulation and/or adherence to clinical protocols in order to ensure a high level of treatment and safety for all patients
- Follow the operating principles of the Department
- Demonstration of professional attitude to patients

- Development of clinical work and use resources appropriately, effectively and efficiently
- Collaboration with home care services and other outside services to patients
- Participation in an active on-call program (In such case he/she is paid additional financial compensation according to the Center's current on-call compensation program)
- Participation in the educational programmes of the Centre, providing for his/her own continuing education and training
- Execution of any other duties related to the post as may be assigned to him/her

Note: Depending on the needs of the Centre, the pathologist may be assigned to a similar post in any of the following sections of the Centre: Internal Medicine Department, Department of One Day Clinic, Department of Supportive Care, Department of Radiotherapeutic Oncology.

The main responsibilities of Internal Medicine Department include:

- Assessment and monitoring of patients who are to be admitted and/or hospitalised in the department to which he/she is assigned
- Collaboration with the Pathological Oncologist or Radiation Oncologist and supervises all patients admitted to the Internal Medicine Department
- Treatment complications or other emergencies that may occur
- Completion CHT protocols for all treatments.
- Supervision Physician Assistants and/or Resident Physician Oncologists.

The main responsibilities of One Day Clinic Department include:

- The Pathologist of the Unit is responsible for the examination/evaluation of patients who will undergoing chemotherapy in the One Day Clinic
- Collaboration with an Assistant Physician or Resident Physician Oncologist and undertakes the diagnosis of the examination for all patients in the program.
- Treatment complications or other emergencies that may occur in Patients undergoing Chemotherapy in the Day Care Unit.
- Completion the HMT protocols for all treatments
- Supervision Physician Assistants and/or Resident Physician Oncologists

The main responsibilities of Supportive Care Department include:

- The Pathologist of the Unit is responsible for the evaluation and administration of appropriate treatment for patients who present themselves in an emergency
- Treatment complications or other emergencies that may occur to patients who are hospitalised in the department

The main responsibilities of Internal Medicine Department include:

- The Pathologist of the Department is responsible for the monitoring of all patients undergoing radiotherapy (RT)
- Undertake the examination/assessment by a radiotherapist Oncologist, of patients admitted to the Internal Medicine Department; and undergo radiotherapy
- Treatment complications or other urgent problems that may occur in patients undergoing Radiotherapy
- Monitoring appropriate medical procedures, under the supervision of Radiation Oncologists, on patients who have completed radiation therapy and are undergoing scheduled post-treatment follow-up.
- Supervision Physician Assistants

Qualifications include:

- Bachelor of Medicine
- Possession of a Certificate of Speciality in Pathology in accordance with the Registration of Doctors law
- Previous experience in clinical practice with oncology patients is a plus
- Registration or intention to register with the Cyprus Medical Register
- Medical License
- Clean police record
- Very good knowledge of Greek and English language
- Ability to handle patients/families
- Ability to work in a team
- Resistance to pressure and work stress
- Excellent ICT skills
- Exceptional organizational skills with attention to detail and ability to prioritize

Benefits, Growth Opportunities & Other Information

- Location: Limassil, Cyprus
- Type of work: On-Site
- Benefits include: Competitive Pay Based on Experience and strong opportunity for a personal professional development.

Send your cv to this e-mail info@cip.gr

